Mishi Idd Omar

She is the first female COXSWAIN with the Kenya Ports Authority Mombasa Kenya

She got her job through a competitive recruitment process. She has been serving for over 5 years.

She serves as an inspiration and a mentor to women. She calls on women and young girls to understand that it is their responsibility to take opportunities in the transport sector in order to advocate for what matters to them in the male-dominated sector.

Her dream is to advance on higher responsibilities of being a captain on bigger vessels like ship and mentor other upcoming generation in transport sector.

#2021WTACONFERENCE
She is the CEO of 2NK Sacco since 2015 being in charge of the Sacco assets as well as maintaining a motivated workforce.

She started working as a clerk to later become a CEO of a leading Public transport company in Kenya.

Her greatest achievement is Licensing of the FOSA
In 2014
And Opening a 2NK branch in Karatina (Nyeri County)
in 2021

“Never say die! Face the challenges head on, believe in yourself so that you can prove your capability to others. God above all”

Ann Nyawira Wanjohi

#2021WTACONFERENCE
A successful woman in Transport Entrepreneur.

She owns and manages a tyre shop in Kiambu Kenya

She has been in the business for over 6 years now. She is known for her great managerial skills. She is also known for providing employment opportunities to the youth.

Ann Maina

Her Dream is to open more branches around Kenya and employ more young people.

“Women it is your time to invest in your entrepreneurial skills, You can achieve your dreams only if you fold your sleeves up and work”
She is the vice-Chairperson For Rembo Shuttle Kenya

She was competitively elected for the post and has been serving for over two years now.

She believes women can make good leaders in the transport sector if they provided with conducive working environment and the opportunity to compete fairly.

Angelica has been recognized by different governmental and non-governmental agencies for her resilience and determination to make the transport sector more inclusive. Currently her Sacco has employed more women than before.

He aspiration is to become a director of her on transport company.
Cynthia Bridget Wanyonyi

She is the first trade union General Secretary in Kenya. She is the founder of Boda Boda, Tuk Tuk and Taxis Workers Union Of Kenya (BOTTAX)

She has managed to organize women in Mombasa, Nakuru, Nairobi and Kisumu to join Bottax Union for collective bargaining efforts.

Her dream is to have an inclusive public transport system, where women can enjoy better working conditions and actively participate in the sector.

“Being a union leader in the male dominated sector in a male dominated sector calls for self-determinations and growing a thick skin”
Cecelia Waithera

She is popularly known as shosho. She runs an electronic sounds systems enterprise known are Shosho Sounds Electronics.

She is an expert in installing sound systems in vehicles. An art she learnt through observing her grandsons install sound systems in vehicles.

She was also the first woman to own a Matatu in the early 70s in Nairobi.

She feels, despite of her age, she can do most of the jobs if facilitated with the skills.

Her dream is to run a Technical Training school where she can teach the young generation on engineering skills, sound systems installations and entrepreneurial skills.
Congratulations to Our 2021 Awardees

#2021WTACONFERENCE